TUDOR CHORISTERS

Creative Director | Dr Kathleen McGuire

The Tudor Choristers acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the Country on which rehearsals and performances are held, paying respect to Elders past, present and emerging. The choir is based mainly in Boroondara; in the Woi Wurrung language this means Shady Place.

SEASON 23

About | TUDORS

Delighting audiences since its foundation in 1962 by David Carolane OAM, the Tudor Choristers continues to entertain as one of Victoria's pre-eminent choirs. Directed by Dr Kathleen McGuire since 2017, the choir specialises in unaccompanied choral music, performing repertoire from the Tudor era to the present day.

Concert for a Cause | Thankyou, Essential Workers

In gratitude for their untiring efforts to protect us, especially in recent times, this first concert of Season '23 honours essential workers. With potential special guests, The Scrub Choir of the Royal Melbourne Hospital, the concert may benefit the Royal Melbourne Hospital Foundation. Thankyou, Essential Workers, please join us free of charge. Please donate to Concert for a Cause; your donations will support Essential Workers.

Yule in Jule™ | Ye Olde Midwinter Rustic Banquet

Celebrate Midwinter with friends and family whilst supporting the Tudor Choristers. Set in a unique venue, built in 1917, nestled by the Yarra River in Docklands, this inaugural event includes a hearty three-course meal inspired by Tudor era and Medieval recipes and customs, plus entertainment from the choir and guest artists befitting the Midwinter theme. Ample parking available in the adjacent parking lot (weekend flat rate). Subscribers receive a complimentary glass tankard etched with the choir's logo. Join us to revel in winter delights at Yule in Jule™!

Elizabeth the Great | Music of Majesty

In a tribute to the end of the second Elizabethan era, a year after the death of Her Majesty, Elizabeth II, this program features majestic music created for and by British royalty through the ages. Selections will include works ranging from the Tudor era to contemporary commissions created for royal occasions plus audience participation in the singing of Jerusalem and other classic hymns. Join us to celebrate Elizabeth II's remarkable 'life of service'.

Sing Nowell! '23 | 45th Annual Concert

The 45th anniversary of Tudor Choristers' beloved Sing Nowell! Christmas concerts (established in 1978) includes excerpts from J.S. Bach's Magnificat in D major (BWV 243) and traditional music from carols at Kings. In the words of founder, David Carolane OAM, Sing Nowell! is "beautiful music for the appreciation of all".

David Carolane OAM Choralship™ Program

Named in honour of the choir's founder and music director of 25 years, the Choralship™ Program provides advancement opportunities to choral artists aged 18 to 30. Successful candidates receive an honorarium, complimentary membership in the Tudor Choristers, scope to develop musical and related skills, and receive individual mentoring from the choir's music director. Full details are available on the website. Donations to support the program are gratefully appreciated!
