TUDOR CHORISTERS

Music Director | Carlos del Cueto

The Tudor Choristers acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the Country on which rehearsals and performances are held, paying respect to Elders past and present. The choir is based mainly in Boroondara; in the Woi Wurrung language this means Shady Place.

2024 SEASON

About | TUDORS

Delighting audiences since its foundation in 1962 by David Carolane OAM, the Tudor Choristers continues to entertain as one of Victoria's pre-eminent choirs. Directed by Carlos del Cueto from 2024, the choir specialises in choral music, performing repertoire from the Tudor era and contemporary classical cannon.

SACRED MUSIC OF SORROW AND SOLACE

We begin our season with a full program of sacred works for unaccompanied voices by Gibbons, Ludford, Palestrina, Holst and Tchaikovsky and featuring the poignant Lamentations of Jeremiah by Thomas Tallis.

27 APRIL

SONGS AND MADRIGALS

Our one fully non-sacred music concert of the season. We will sing madrigals, partsongs and folksongs from various times and places, from the Renaissance and beyond.

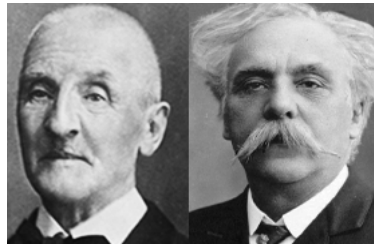

29 JUNE

MASSES AND MOTETS

We return to sacred music and commemorate two anniversaries. Alongside Renaissance repertoire we will sing a selection of motets by Bruckner, commemorating his 200th birth year. It is also 100 years since Fauré's death, and we will sing his exquisite Messe basse for female voices and organ.

21 SEPTEMBER

SING NOWELL!

The 46th anniversary of Tudor Choristers' beloved "Sing Nowell!" will feature wonderful carols from a variety of languages and countries, including Australia. In the words of our founder, David Carolane OAM, Sing Nowell! is "beautiful music for the appreciation of all".
